Thereby, the need for forming IQAC becomes mandatory so that the College can progress towards academic growth and holistic development of its students.

1.2 Introduction about the proposal of forming IQAC Cell

Dr. Neelima Pareek, senior faculty member of the College threw some light on the proposal of forming IQAC. She addressed the meeting by highlighting the significance of a devoted group of people for taking care of the rising need to meet the educational quality indexes that she focussed are mandatory in the present scenario.

The students these days are to be made not just degree holders but they should be made competitive enough to face the competitive era by being industry-fit. The discussion was then opened for all the faculty members to have a brain storming session to discuss on the benefits of forming IQAC.

1.3 Discussion about the benefits of IQAC formation

The meeting gained momentum with the involvement of all the faculty members giving their opinions on the benefits of forming IQAC. All the learned members of the teaching fraternity attending the meeting gave useful inputs by discussing on the benefits of IQAC and endorsed the thought of forming IQAC. The proposal of forming IQAC was unanimously accepted by all as they believed the formation of IQAC will augment the progress towards educational development and thereby bridging the gap in the present system.

1.4 Proposal for the names of IQAC Members

The faculty members attending the meeting suggested names for holding different positions in the IQAC as given in the format by NAAC. The suggestions were made on the basis of competence and also looking at the interest areas of the proposed faculty name. Names for representatives in various categories as required were also suggested for making the working of IQAC effective and to attain its objectives.

1.5 Discussion about the IQAC Members

Management member, Principal and all the faculty members discussed on the various names suggested for said positions in IQAC. The discussions were conclusive and the list of selected members was finalised.

4.4 Action taken on Agenda of the Meeting

The following actions were taken on the basis of discussions and recommendations by the IQAC members:

4.1.1 First Year Result Analysis

First Year University of Rajasthan examination results were analysed. The pass percentage has increased since previous year.

- All departmental HoDs have been instructed to list out weak students in specific subjects and help them with improvements.

4.1.2 Formation of Prospectus Committee

- Work is assigned to the prospectus committee for giving prospectus a professional look.
- Additions of all USPs are to be mentioned for helping students get better understanding.

4.1.3 Formation of Commerce Club

- For meeting the growing need to enhance the practical knowledge of the students regarding Tax return, GST Returns etc. and to organise workshops from renowned CAs, Commerce Club has been formed in the college.

4.1.4 Government Scholarships

- This was suggested by the committee members that with scholarships that the college is offering we can add few scholarships provided by the government such as PradhanMantriScootyYojna for Girls to the needy students.
- Since, students who take admission in the college comes for average financial background, identification of needy students stands a challenge.

4.1.5 Pre-University Examination

- Pre-university examination was conducted for all disciplines to help students understand the exam pattern and be confident in their exam performance.
- As the students have recently experienced the covid phase these examinations were a must for boosting their morale.
