

SHRI MAHAVEER COLLEGE

Mahaveer Marg, C-Scheme, Jaipur

Shri Mahaveer College

Affiliated to the University of Rajasthan

(A Co-educational English Medium PG College)

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

B.A.

(Bachelor of Arts)

Department of Arts & Visual Arts

B.A. PROGRAMME

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)
PSO Number	Upon completion of BA Degree Programme the graduates will be able to
PSO 1	Graduate will acquaint with global language and apply psychological content and skills to career goals.
PSO 2	Graduate will understand the land forms and processes, social problem and disorganization in Indian society, understand the basic information of Indian constitution, Think and argue historically and critically in writing and discussion

Programme Outcomes (POs)
PO Number	Upon completion of B.A. Degree Programme the graduates will be able to
PO-1	Graduate will acquire knowledge in the field of social sciences, literature and humanities which make them sensitive and sensible enough.
PO-2	The graduates will be acquainted with the social, economical, historical, geographical, political, ideological and Psychological thinking.
PO-3	The program also empowers the graduates to appear for various competitive examinations or choose the post graduate programme of their choice
PO-4	The B. A. program enables the students to acquire the knowledge with human values framing the base to deal with various problems in life with courage with humanity.
PO-5	A graduate will be ignited enough to think and act over for the solution of various issues prevailed in the human life to make this world better than ever.
PO-6	The B.A. program enables the students to acquire knowledge with human values, framing the base to deal with various problems in life with courage and humanity.
PO-7	A graduate student in arts/social sciences/humanities shall be confident to speak, write, read, listen and understand the English language and one or more Indian languages.
PO-8	Develop critical and analytical skills to the identification and resolution of problems within complex changing social, linguistic and literary contexts
PO-9	Graduate will Get acquainted with the historical events happened in India as well as in the world.
PO-10	Graduate will Become a responsible and dutiful citizen

COURSE OUTCOMES

BA I YEAR

GEOGRAPHY -I
After completion of course:
CO1	Identify the concepts of Origin of Earth and land forms
CO2	Illustrate the different forces acting over the Earth.
CO3	Compare and analyze the different cycles of landform erosion and their processes...
CO4	Knowledge of physical and environmental geography, and the ability to relate them to human activities.

GEOGRAPHY -II
After completion of course:
CO1	Knowledge of physical and environmental geography, and the ability to relate them to human activities.
CO2	Classify the different tribes of the world and use various factors to interpret the spatial distribution of population.
CO3	Visualize the various patterns of migration, settlements and summarize the major problems of urbanization in World.
CO4	Analyze the role of human agency in shaping the environment and responding to environmental challenges.

ENGLISH LITERATURE -I

After completion of course:

CO1	Ability to interpret and analyze poetic texts, understanding their themes, symbols, and use of language
CO2	Develop critical thinking skills by exploring different critical perspectives and theoretical approaches to poetry
CO3	Understand the historical and cultural context in which different poems were written and how these contexts influence their content and form.
CO4	Familiarity with various poetic forms and genres, such as sonnets, haikus, free verse, etc.

ENGLISH LITERATURE -II

After completion of course:

CO1	Interpretation and appreciation of selected texts from the genres of prose and fiction.
CO2	Strengthening skills of note making, summarizing and dialogue writing.
CO3	Understanding texts with specific reference to genres, forms and literary terms
CO4	To introduce essay as a genre of literature and acquaint with important essayists and their style of writing

PSYCHOLOGY-I

After completion of course:

CO1	Explain the concept of epistemology of psychology, analyze and appreciate psychology as a science and its biological basis.
CO2	Apply the principles of major concepts of psychology, such as sensation and perception, and critically Analyze the understanding of the relationship between stimulus and response base for behavior.
CO3	Develop and understanding of different models and types of memory, to know about motivation and emotion and understand the concept of cognition.
CO4	To anticipate the concept and understanding of intelligence and its measurement, and personality and its assessments.

PSYCHOLOGY –II

After completion of course:

CO1	Explain the concept of epistemology of Social psychology, analyze and appreciate social psychology as a science and its research methods.
CO2	Apply the principles of major concepts of social psychology, such as social perception and person perception and critically analyze the understanding of perceptual defense, perceptual accentuation
CO3	Develop and understanding the nature, function, formation, change and measurement of Attitude.
CO4	To anticipate the concept and understanding of prejudice and discrimination and its reduction.

POLITICAL SCIENCE -I

After completion of course:

CO1	Analysing what is Politics and explaining the approaches to the Study of Political Science – Normative, Behavioral, Post Behavioral, Feminist.
CO2	Assessing the theories of State (Origin, Nature, Functions): Contract, Idealist, Liberal and Neo-Liberal Theories.
CO3	Explaining the Concept of State Sovereignty: Monistic and Pluralistic Theories. Analysing the changing concept of Sovereignty in the context of Globalisation.
CO4	Classification of David Held’s Democratic Theories

POLITICAL SCIENCE -II

After completion of course:

CO1	Understanding basic concepts of Liberty, Equality, Rights, Law and Justice
CO2	Assessing empirical Political Theory: System’s Analysis, Structural Functionalism.
CO3	Explaining Dialectical Materialism and Historical Materialism with special reference to relationship between base and superstructure
CO4	Analysing the theory of class and class struggle

STATISTICS -I

After completion of course:

CO1	The student will be acquainted the scope and importance of role of basic statistics in the current scenario and shape his life as per his interest in the respective field.
CO2	The student will be able to identify data types represent by graphical and diagrammatically also compute various measures of central tendency, dispersion, skewness and kurtosis
CO3	The student will be able to analyse data pertaining to attributes and to interpret the results
CO4	The student will be able to compute different summary statistics with their interpretation and process categorically.

STATISTICS -II

After completion of course:

CO1	The student will know the concept of correlation, its types and measures.
CO2	The learner understands the concept of Index numbers and construction of index numbers by using various methods.
CO3	The learner understands the concept of curve fitting to fit linear , quadratic and exponential curves to the bivariate data to investigate relation between two variables.
CO4	The student understands the fitting of proper regression lines and will be able to fit appropriate equation to the given/collected data.

ECONOMICS -I

After completion of course:

CO1	Students will be able to explain the nature and scope of economics, distinguishing between micro and macroeconomic methodologies, as well as articulating the differences between positive and normative economics.
CO2	Students will demonstrate an understanding of consumer behavior through utility analysis and indifference curve analysis, enabling them to analyze consumer equilibrium and the effects of price changes on demand, including the concepts of normal, inferior, and Giffen goods.
CO3	Students will critically assess theories of distribution, including marginal productivity theory and factor pricing under different market conditions
CO4	Students will be able to analyze production functions, including the law of variable proportions and returns to scale, as well as differentiate between short-run and long-run cost curves, applying these concepts to various market structures

--	---

ECONOMICS -II
After completion of course:
CO1	Students will be able to calculate and interpret various forms of elasticity of demand (price, income, and cross elasticity)
CO2	Analyze their implications for total revenue, average revenue, and marginal revenue in different market scenarios
CO3	Evaluate classical and modern theories of rent, interest, and profit in the context of risk and uncertainty.
CO4	Analyze consumer equilibrium and the effects of price changes on demand, including the concepts of normal, inferior, and Giffen goods

SOCIOLOGY –I
After completion of course:
CO1	critically analyze the historical development of sociology and its foundational concepts
CO2	compare and contrast the methodologies and theoretical frameworks of sociology with those of other social sciences, evaluating both scientific and humanistic approaches to understanding social phenomena.
CO3	analyze the complexities of social structures and dynamics within societies, demonstrating an understanding of how institutions, social roles, and cultural norms shape individual and collective behaviors.
CO4	critically evaluate theories of social stratification, social change, mobility, and socialization, applying these concepts to analyze contemporary social issues and transformations in societies.

SOCIOLOGY –II

After completion of course:

CO1	Critically evaluate the contributions of Indian sociologists to Indian sociology, understanding the significance of major traditions in sociological research.
CO2	Explore the various forms and meanings of family, marriage, and kinship, caste and class and caste identifying contemporary challenges and their implications on social structures and individual lives.
CO3	Analyze the social problems of corruption, drug abuse, and crimes against women and children, evaluating their causes, consequences, and potential solutions.
CO4	Understand the social, economic, and psychological challenges faced by the aging population, proposing strategies to address these issues and improve the quality of life for elderly individuals.

HISTORY -I

After completion of course:

CO1	Aims to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the history of Ancient India up to 1200 CE
CO2	seeks to familiarize students with the main sources and methodologies used in study of ancient Indian history.
CO3	Aims to develop the students' knowledge about during different period of ancient Indian history
CO4	Seeks to enhance students critical thinking skills in interpreting historical sources

HISTORY -II

After completion of course:

CO1	The students will be able to get acquaint with the sources of the history of Rajasthan.
CO2	To get familiar with the theories of origin of the Rajput and achievement of the different clans of the Rajasthan.
CO3	Understood the history of Mewar with emphasis on important rulers.
CO4	To develop an of Rajput polity and clan, Mughal-Rajput relations and its implications on the political incorporations of Rajasthan in the Mughal.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION -I

After completion of course:

CO1	Explain the concept of public administration in developing society
CO2	Determine the nature, scope and characteristic of public administration, highlights the foundation of the public administration as a discipline that explores the fundamentals, historical underpinnings and conceptual dimensions of the subject
CO3	Compare the relationship between other Social Sciences - Political Science, Economics, Sociology, Law and Psychology
CO4	The student will be able to understand the underlying conceptual dimensions of public administration.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION -II

After completion of course:

CO1	Explain the concept of public administration in developing society
CO2	Determine the nature, scope and characteristic of public administration, highlights the foundation of the public administration as a discipline that explores the fundamentals, historical underpinnings and conceptual dimensions of the subject.
CO3	Compare the relationship between other Social Sciences - Political Science, Economics, Sociology, Law and Psychology.
CO4	The student will be able to understand the underlying conceptual dimensions of public administration

HINDI LITERATURE -I

After completion of course:

CO1	To introduce the writers and literature of the ancient and the medieval period
CO2	Identification of the peculiarities of these Periods.
CO3	Make the students able to differentiate these periods
CO4	To make the students understand the impact of the works of the writers on society and Hindi literature as a whole.

HINDI LITERATURE -II

After completion of course:

CO1	To describe the modern national, social and cultural environment as described in the modern Hindi poetry.
CO2	To evaluate the writers and important works of each period.
CO3	To analyse the contemporary Hindi Poetry effectively.
CO4	To use the knowledge thus gained in their creative writing.