DISABLED-FRIENDLY, BARRIER FREE ENVIRONMENT

Shri Mahaveer College provides a barrier-free environment where students and staff with disabilities can move about safely and freely, using all facilities within the built environment. This environment supports the independent functioning of individuals, enabling them to participate in everyday activities on campus without assistance. Buildings and places are made barrier-free.

RAMP: Ramps with handrails, inclined planes built in addition to staircases, are provided. These ramps are carefully designed according to specifications to be used by differently-abled individuals.

LIFT: College buildings are equipped with lifts to ensure barrier-free access for students, staff, visitors, and differently-abled individuals. The lift facility is available in the main building.

Divyangjan-friendly Washrooms: College buildings are equipped with Divyangjan-friendly washrooms, ensuring barrier-free access for students, staff, and visitors with disabilities.
