SEMINAR

ON BUDGET (2022)

19th Feb 2022

Resource Person: Prof. N. D. Mathur
Keshav Gupta (CA)
Shivangi Samdhari (CA)

About: Budget -2022: The Budget for 2022 focused on economic recovery and growth following the disruptions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Key priorities included boosting infrastructure investments, supporting small businesses, and enhancing healthcare and education systems. The budget allocated significant funds for pandemic relief measures, including vaccination programs and economic stimulus packages. There was also a push towards digital transformation and green energy initiatives to promote sustainable development. Tax policies were adjusted to support both individuals and businesses, aiming to stimulate economic activity and job creation. The 2022 Budget emphasized fiscal responsibility, with measures to manage public debt while investing in long-term growth sectors. Overall, it aimed to foster resilience and build a foundation for a robust economic recovery.

ABSTRACT OF THE SESSION: MCC organized 'Budget -2022 Seminar' on 19th Feb 2022.

The main objective of this Seminar is to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the fiscal policies, economic strategies, and key provisions outlined in the Budget. This seminar aims to dissect and analyze the budget's components, including revenue generation, expenditure allocations, tax reforms, and sector-specific initiatives. By offering in-depth insights and expert analyses, the seminar seeks to equip participants with the knowledge needed to assess the budget's potential impacts on economic growth, business environments, public welfare, and social programs. Furthermore, it aims to foster informed discussions on the policy implications and strategic opportunities arising from the budget, enabling stakeholders to make well-informed decisions and adapt effectively to the evolving fiscal landscape. Overall, the seminar aspires to enhance participants' ability to interpret and leverage the Budget 2022 for strategic planning and sustainable development
