ABSTRACT OF THE SESSION: SMC organized 'G – 20 and Bharat' on 12th September, 2023. Speaker were Dr. Rajeev Saxena (Retd. Professor, UOR) and Mr. Upmanyu Singh Rana (Educationist). The main objective of this session is to provide students a depth understanding of the G-20's role in global economic governance and India's strategic involvement. The session aims to explore the mechanisms and impact of the G-20 on international economic policies, highlighting India's contributions and diplomatic efforts. Students will analyze the historical evolution, key initiatives and policy outcomes of the G-20 while also focusing on India's priorities in areas such as trade, climate change and sustainable development. By examining case studies, participating in simulations students will gain practical insights into the complexities of global diplomacy, economic decision-making and preparing them to engage effectively in discussions and careers related to international relations and economic policy.
